

FCCERS-R 101

FCCERS-R 101 is a two-day training to teach early childhood professionals (trainers and consultants) the basics of the newly revised Family Child Care Environment Rating Scale.

There are two sets of training dates with a target of 20 participants for each two-day session. Learners must attend both days of training and complete a reading assignment after day 1 in preparation for day 2.

Training:

October 29-30 and November 5-6

Polk County Extension Office • 1625 Adventureland Drive, Suite A, Altoona
Day 1: 10:00 am – 4:00 pm and Day 2: 8:00 am – 3:30 pm

Workshop Outcomes:

- become familiar with the content and organization of the scale
- learn basics of how the FCCERS-R is scored
- learn how child care professionals use the scale for self-assessment and program improvement
- learn the advantages and disadvantages of the scale as an early childhood education quality assessment
- practice using the scale in a typical family child care home setting

Instructors: Sharon Mays and Donna K. Donald, ISUE Families Extension Specialists

Co-instructors: Melissa Thorson, ISUE ERS Assessment Program Coordinator
